So much power in the hands of any one entity endangers the ideals of individual freedom that our President claimed was one of the reasons we battered the people of Iraq--to give them individual freedoms.

We need to beware of too much power high up in our government,corporate structure, etc. Teddy Roosevelt, 100 years ago, fought against this very danger. We need to continue to ensure that his vision isn't destroyed.